Script for Brochure

In these days of pluralism and multiculturalism in our Australian Society, we are often hard pressed to know how to meet the radical changes in culture and how to interpret them to our congregations in the light of the Gospel we preached. It is not only fascinating to discover that God has always had his covenant with every person in the world, but also with the creation itself. We believe that the minds and ministries gathered together in this coming Pastors' School will help us to face changing society and bring hope and love and freedom to it. Far from being 'heavy theology' it is getting to the issues and understanding their meaning, as we develop their application. The richness of worship, the word and fellowship will also bring refreshment.

Reading List

Note: You will get so much more out of the Pastors' School if you do a bit of reading. Articles in Bible and Theological Dictionaries are often helpful before starting a book on the theme.
